

Family Engagement Standards and Rubrics Worksheet

Communication Standard #1b—School: School administration communicates regularly via hardcopy or electronic newsletter in English and Spanish. Principal’s reports via school Web site, school newspaper, and/or magazine are all acceptable forms of communication.
Middle and High School

Exemplary	Developing/Emerging	Weak/Just Starting
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Newsletters are produced at least quarterly. • Updated calendars are provided to parents at least quarterly. • Policy updates and monthly committee meeting updates are continuous and timely. • Quarterly newsletters accurately reflect the school’s climate and culture. Monthly updates and reminders of school and community events are included. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Newsletters are produced once per semester. • Updated calendars are provided to parents at least once per semester. • Policy and committee information and reminders are provided to parents and families each semester. • Schools produce updates on school community and cultural events each semester. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No newsletter is provided to parents. If it is provided, it is not provided regularly. • A yearly calendar is put out to parents at the beginning of the year with no updates throughout the year. • Little or no policy on communication or committee information is provided to parents. • Schools produce and pass out generic information that has no relationship to academics or the school itself.