

Family Engagement Standards and Rubrics Worksheet

Student Achievement Standard #7—School: School creates a diverse, school-based menu of options for family support of student learning and achievement and directly supports the family in availing themselves of these opportunities.

Exemplary	Developing/Emerging	Weak/Just Starting
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• School offers a wide variety of opportunities for family engagement, which include different interests, schedules, and are appropriate to their needs.</li> <li>• Schools provide trainings to help families work with their children to improve academic achievement.</li> <li>• School provides an accessible school environment and holds a family information and resource center to support their families with training, resources, and other services.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• School offers some opportunities for family involvement, but is unable to appeal to diverse needs, interests, and schedules.</li> <li>• School provides occasional trainings to help families work with their children to improve academic achievement.</li> <li>• School provides an accessible school environment, but does not actively pursue opportunities to provide parent/family trainings and support.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• School uses a uniform approach to providing options for families to support their students’ learning and achievement.</li> <li>• School provides no trainings to help families work with their children to improve academic achievement.</li> <li>• School offers family engagement opportunities during a fixed or limited period of time during the day or only after school.</li> </ul>